Travis, Ward, Townsend and Meserole Win at Match Play-Tle in Handleap and Bogey Cup Goes to Kellogg-Amateur

Champton Beaten at Morris County. There was no rain yesterday at the Nassau Country Club, when the final rounds were played in the very successful three-day open dull and gray it was a great relief not to get soaking while going the rounds.

 First in interest were the semi-final rounds for the Nassau Country cup in the morning, which brought out a great score by Travis and an interesting match betweet Cory and J. R. Maxwell, Jr. Travis beat Marcellus by 7 up and 6 to play and made a 73, the tournament record for the links, and only two strokes above the amateur record held himself. But for missing three short puts the score would have been 70. Cory won by 2 up and 1 to play, after a good tussle on the home holes. The cards for the two matches follow:

Cory ... 4 5 4 6 5 5 3 5 5-12

Cory 5 3 6 4 5 5 5 3 * 36-78

Cory, as he himself said, played as well a be knew how in the final for the chief trophy but Travis was too fast for him and won out by 6 up and 4 to play. The eard:

In the play for the North Country cup Ward and Frothingham had a spirited match Going out in 39, Ward was 4 up at the turn and later 5 up, with 6 to go. Then Frothingham began a series of par holes, while Ward was weak, and won four straight. The seventeenth was halved in three, leaving Ward.

CAMBRIDGE, Sept. 27 Harvard defeated Williams in her first game of the season on Soldiers' Field this afternoon by a score of 11 to 0. Harvard's playing was extremely poor, even for an opening game, but only two of last years. Varsity were able to begin the game. Marshall and Bowditch. Neither was able to stay the game out Barnard was unable to play on account of a sore heel, and Gravdon is not yet in good enough physical condition. Capt Kernan will not play for the first few games in order to give the candidates for half back a good trying out. Harvard was especially weak at the ends. Williams making 40 and 30-yard runs, one around each end. Harvard's tackling was high, her line charged poorly, and the punting was wretched. Meier and Leatherbee showed up to the best advantage. Both were good ground gainers, and both played well on the defensive. Each got a touchdown, and Meier tackled the Williams backs for a loss four times. Marshall did the goal kicking. He missed the first, but got the second.

New HAVEN, Sept. 27—Yale opened her football cason this afternoon by a slashing old victory over Trinity. Yale pushed Trinity's eleven around the gridiron entirely at will, and won by the score of 40 to 0. Trinity was very weak, and did not even furnish good practice. The game failed to show up the Yale material. The field was muddy and slippery. Yale's big score may be attributed partly to the inexperience of the Trinity team and partly to the excellence of the Elis' play. It was the desire of the coaches to give every man who had proved to be anything at all during the past two weeks a trial, and consequently Holt was the only one of the Yale veterans who played the entire game. Less than three minutes sufficed for Yale to make her first score. Twenty-five and thirty-yard runs were common. Hogan made the first score of the season against an opposing team. In the first half all the veterans showed up in great shape. Behind the line Metcalf and Rockwell did good work, but neither got through without fumbling. Capt. Chadwick Ward Hinkle. Farmer McClip. line Metcalf and Rockwell did good work, but neither got through without fumbling. Capt. Chadwick, Ward, Hinkle, Farmer, McClincock and Bowman followed their interference well and ran in good form. Sheviln gave promise of being a second Bloomer. Bowman did good work at goal kicking after touchdowns. The ends were not marvels, by any means, but the Trinity players could not circle them. Walter Camp to-day, for the first time this season, watched the work. On the blenchers were members of the faculty.

MANHATTAN, 6; RUTGEES, 0.

Despite gloomy weather and a muddy field, a large crowd visited Jasper Oval yesterday to witness the game between Rutgers and Manhattan. The game was interesting and evenly contested throughout. The first half lasted fifteen minutes and was characterized by the end plays of J. Cotter and the tackling of Krebs. Referee Smith was compelled to give the visiting team sixty yards in penalties, which Manhattan could not overcome, and when the whistle sounded, ending the first half, the score was 0 to 0.

The second half lasted ten minutes, just giving Manhattan time to make one touchdown. The touchdown resulted from a forty-yard run by Capt. Farley. MANHATTAN, 6; RUTGERS, 0.

PUNTING AT FRINCETON. PINTING AT PRINCETON.

PRINCETON. Sept. 27 The Tigers had their first line up this afternoon, but they were not worked very hard and most of the time was spent practising formations for punting. No attempt was made to advance the ball by line plunging. Vetterlein, the freshman, and Foulke, last year's half back, did the punting. The former's work was better all around than that of the veteran. His kicks were well directed and had plenty of force behind them. The Varsity line furnished good protection and the scrubs succeeded in blocking only one kick. Barney and Waller, the fresCman guards, both showed up in promising form, and Rafferty, another first year man, who was at tackle, broke through in fine style, frequently nailing the man with the ball before the ends got down the field.

CORNELL, 5; COLGATE, 0.

ITHACA: Sept. 27.—Cornell defeated Colgate to-day by the score of 5 to 0, and it was a lucky goal made by Coffin after a free catch early in the second half which gave the home team the victory. Cornell had not been facing her rivals more than thirty seconds, before it was seen shat the contest would be a close one. Cornell had only simple plays at her command and the attacks of the half backs were resisted with determination. It was easily seen that the Ithacans could not score by line plays, so kicking was resorted to, but in this department. Brewster was but little superior to Runge, the Colgate full back. On the other hand, the visitors had quite a strong attack, and the right side of the Cornell line frequently gave way to the well executed formations of the opposing side.

COLUMBIA VARSITY BEATS SCHUBS. CORNELL, 5; COLGATE, 0.

COLUMBIA 'VARSITY BEATS SCRUBS. By a score or 15 to 0, Columbia 'Varsity team defeated a strong scrub team on South Field yesterday afternoon. The play was unusually hard for the first week of practice but Morley played the men hard for two short halves. The 'Varsity team was strengthened by Buyard Boy esen, last year's quarter back; Whitwell, a substitute guard from last year, and A. Sinythe, a heavy man and brother of D. Sinythe, of the 1900 team. Capt. Weekes did not play, but did some coaching. Frequent rests were taken to allow the men to recover their wind and to doctor minor sprains.

WISLEYAN, 16; BOSTON COLLEGE, 6. MIDDLETOWN, Conn. Sept. 27. Wesleyan in her first game of the season to-day defeated Boston College, 14 to 6. The team showed surprising strength and speed, and at no time in the game did Boston succeed in holding it for downs. On the defense the team was equally strong, only once allowing the Boston team to make five yards, and this was an end run of twenty-five yards, which netted the visiting team its only touchdown.

BROWN'S GOOD PRACTICE. PROVIDENCE, Sept. 27.—The Brown 'Varsity again played a fast g me with the scrub this afternoon. The ball was kicked off to the scrubs and allowed to remain in their possession all the afternoon, but no matter how hard the scrub team tried it could not advance the ball fifteen yards. The playing was so flerce that after almost every play two or three men were laid out. The showing of the 'Varsity team in its defensive work has not been equalled here in two years.

CARLISLE, 25: GETTYSBURG, Q. CARLISLE, 25. GETTYSIGERG, 0.

CARLISLE, Pa., Sept. 27.—The Carlisle Indian eleven defeated diettysburg by a score of 25 to 0 to-day on a wet field in twenty-minute halves. Mikifer Schouchuk, the Esquiman, was at his best. Charles's line-bucking was magnificent and he did the star work of the game.

The Dickinson College football team defeated Lebanon Valley College here to-day 17 to 0.

PROF. KEMP ON ATHLETES.

Suggestion That May Bar Columbia's Mer From Representing Athletic Clubs.

Prof. James Furman Kemp, head of the de partment of geology at Columbia University and chairman of the Faculty Committee on Athletics for the academic year 1902-03, who attended the intercollegiate athletic conference at Brown University several years ago expresses himself on the athletic situation at American institutions of learning as follows: "There is no doubt that the events of the urrent collegiate year will furnish materia for an interesting chapter when it shall have drawn to a close. The chief points to be decided in the future are: (1) the best form of scholarship qualification; residence and satisfactory work for a term shall not be required as a necessary preliminary for eligibility to 'Varsity teams: (3) whether while a member of Columbia and one of her athletic representatives a student shall be allowed to compete under the colorof any other organization, as, for instance, an outside athletic club. Superabundant experience has shown the graduate management in those branches in which expenses are considerable. The prominent institutions in which athletics conduct of an enterprise which is a foreordained financial failure. The deficit must then be made up by subscriptions, but if it then be made up by subscriptions, but if it be not so provided for, the student manager passes on a bequest of debts to his successor. The inheriting manager, not having accumulated the debts himself, feels but a slender responsibility, and thus the accumulation increases until the alumni subscribe the necessary funds to protect the good name of their alma mater. Unless, therefore, older men of tried busi-ness experience control the funds, supervise ness experience control the funds, supervise budgets and keep the books, abuses are inevitable.

budgets and keep the books, abuses are inevitable.

"Questions of amateur standing likewise present serious difficulties. The ideal for a college team is that it should be made up of home fide students, who are primarily in attendance on account of the educational advantages offered. But in prominent lines of sport the desire to win has become so great that promising players or candidates are hunted up in every likely quarter and are induced to enter where their services will be especially appreciated. It is conceivable that, unless careful precautions are taken the inducements may be of such a character as to vittate amateur standtions are taken the inducements may be of such a character as to vitiate a matter standing, and, therefore, the authorities are expected to guard against this contingency yet every person at all experienced in life will appreciate the difficulty of obtaining trustworthy evidence even when a wrong has been committed. No prominent fitting school to-day which has promising 'material' escapes the visitation of one or more representatives of athletics in our universities. The effects are unfortunate in more ways than one ties. The effects are unfortunate in more ways than one.

Scholarship tests are matters which no faculty can afford to overlook. They are of two kinds. The first kind is designed to allow only properly registered students, who are taking the amount of work required in the usual course for a degree, to represent the university. The second kind of test is designed to prevent a man from falling back and getting into the drag because of membership in teams. Another very important question that needs decision at the hands of the authorities relates to the control of the non-athletic organizations, such as glee clubs, dramatic clubs and the like, which give public and representative exhibitions and which demand oversight quite as much as do athletic teams.

clubs played their last game in the champion-ship series of the Metropolitan District Cricket League yesterday at Prospect Park, where, by gaining a victory by the narrow margin of three runs, the former ties Paterson for second place in the race for the pennant. The Manhattan and Nelson Lodge clubs were scheduled to play their postponed league game at Prospect Park vesterday, but the match had to be abandoned.

It is reported at Columbia University that an important change will be made in the rowing policy of the college this fall by which Edward Hanlan, the crew coach, will devote himself entirely to the candidates for the 'Varsity boats at Poughkeepsie, four and eight-oared. The freshman crews will be put in the hands of recent graduates who have enjoyed Hanlan's tutelege and mas-have enjoyed Hanian's tutelege and mastered his theories of watermanship." As the rowing candidates become more numerous every year, the managers of the rowing club have begun to realize that it is a physical impossibility for one man to coach a hundred novices, and it is now proposed to take fifty or more freshmen off of the coach's hands.

The step is another advance toward graduate coaching on Morningside Hegats. The movement was begun by the lacrosse and cycle teams and is being tried by the foetball men for the first time this year, with every prospect of success. Hanlan's position at Columbia, however, seems assured for many years to come.

John H. Shults to Retire From Harness

The veteran breeder and auction sale patron. John H. Shults, whose stock farms, Parkville, on Ocean Boulevard and Shultsestablishments of the East, is to reduce his stock shortly and intends retiring from racing in future. He started auction sensations back in 1886 by buying old Pancoast, 2:21%, at the clearance sale at Glenview Farm, Louisville, for $28,000, and has owned over 1,000 trotting-bred horses and wangsters since he began to breed. At present he owns,
